

SRI KRISHNADEVARAYA COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURAL SCIENCES

(Affiliated to Acharya N.G. Ranga Agricultural University, Guntur, A.P.)

Sanapa Road, Alamuru (Post), Ananthapuramu - 515 002. (A.P.)

Report on visit of Assistant Sub Inspector of Police for Anti-Ragging Awareness

The Assistant Sub Inspector of Police, Shri. S. Nagesh, visited Sri Krishnadevaraya College of Agricultural Sciences on 15.12.2023 to conduct a session on anti-ragging awareness among the students. The primary objective of the visit was to educate the students about the legal implications and consequences of ragging, as well as to create awareness about the prevention and reporting mechanisms related to ragging incidents.

The Assistant Sub Inspector initiated the session along with Associate Dean, Dr. B. Ravindranatha Reddy, by highlighting the importance of maintaining a safe and respectful environment within the educational institution.

The key points covered during the session included,

Definition and Types of Ragging: The ASI explained the definition of ragging as per the law and highlighted various forms of ragging, emphasizing that any act that causes physical or psychological harm, discomfort, or fear amounts to ragging.

Legal Consequences: Detailed information about the legal repercussions and penalties associated with ragging was presented, citing relevant sections of the law. The ASI stressed the seriousness of the offense and the severe actions that could be taken against perpetrators.

Reporting Mechanisms: The ASI elucidated the available reporting mechanisms within the institute and through law enforcement. Contact details and procedures for reporting ragging incidents were shared with the students.

Preventive Measures: Suggestions and strategies for preventing ragging were discussed, encouraging a culture of mutual respect, awareness, and support among students.

Interaction and Questions and Answers: Finally, there was an interactive session where students and faculty members were encouraged to ask questions, seek clarifications, and share their experiences or concerns related to ragging.

The session concluded with a firm call-to-action from the ASI, urging everyone to play an active role in preventing and reporting any instances of ragging. The Associate Dean expressed their gratitude for the informative session and pledged their commitment to creating a safe and inclusive environment within the institution.

Visit of Shri. S. Nagesh, Assistant Sub Inspector of Police, Ananthapuramu Rural

Interaction with Students by Shri. S. Nagesh, ASI-ATP, along with Associate Dean, Dr. B. Ravindranatha Reddy